Clearing the way

John 2.13-22

- How do you deal with all the rubbish in life?
- What gets in the way between you and God?
- How might you begin to clear a path?

Guided Retreat in Daily Life - Wednesday 25 April to Wednesday 13 June

You are invited to take part in an Ignatian individually guided retreat in daily life. What does the Retreat in Daily Life involve?

Daily private prayer: The heart of the retreat is private individual prayer. You are invited to make a commitment to pray privately, daily, over the six weeks, for whatever period you can manage each day, but we recommend 30 minutes a day.

Weekly individual meeting with your prayer guide: Once a week, you will meet in private with your allocated prayer guide for about 30 minutes, at a time and place that works for you. It can be at your home or the prayer guide's home, or some other mutually convenient and acceptable place. You sort this out with your prayer guide at the beginning.

Group meetings to begin and end the retreat: Although this is not a group retreat or prayer group, there is a sense in which everyone making the retreat is journeying together.

See the poster in church for more details.
