We're excited to promote this circuit training, the aim of which is to explore the possibilities to build closer relationships with groups that use our buildings, and reflect on how user-groups provide possibility for mission and are not just for raising funds.

- Looking at the importance of first impressions and first contact with the Church.
- Exploring Chaplaincy and Christian Spiritual Care as models of drawing alongside those who come on to our premises.
- Reflecting on our building space provides opportunities for mission and share our stories of mission engagement.

There will be time to reflect on our own particular situation, and how we might develop opportunities for mission.
