Thought for the day

Pull your weight

2 Thessalonians 3.6-13

- What makes this arch stable?
- In the 'structures' and relationships of our lives, who bears the weight?
- What part are you called to play in your community of faith?

Commissioning of Pastoral Visitors

On Sunday 24th November we will be holding a special service to commission our pastoral visitors. This annual service recognises the vital work that pastoral visitors do on our behalf and invites us to pray for them.

After the service we will be serving cake as we celebrate our pastoral care system.

It is hoped that as many as are able will stay to share in fellowship together.

The children particularly enjoy construction toys such as Lego, craft activities and 'fiddle' toys. If you would like to bring a gift for the women they have plenty of toiletries but would appreciate gifts of chocolate.

A warm, easily-relatable story told through the wonderful performances of outstanding dancers. Tickets: Adult (17+) : £10 Child (up to 16) : £5 Family (2 adults +2 children) : £25

Green Tip

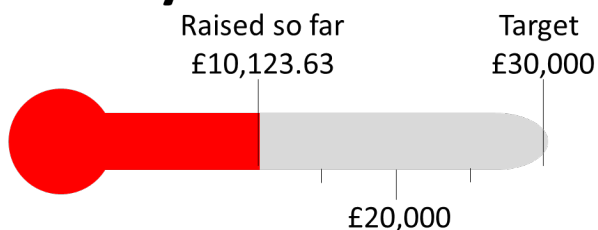

Councils say that shredded paper cannot be recycled because shredding leaves the paper fibres too short. It has to go in the general waste (black) bins. So only shred when really necessary. It is still best to stuff paper that is shredded into a bag of some kind so that the strips don't fly away in the wind when the bins are lifted and emptied, but the bags don't have to be paper. If you have a compost bin, you always compost your shredded paper.
